- d. Nothing in this provision prevents a sitting Director of the Board from nominating for a position at any election.
- e. Nominations shall be delivered to the Secretary not less than seven days preceding the Annual General Meeting.
- f. Nominations may be withdrawn in writing at any time prior to the date of the election.
- g. The Secretary shall be responsible for having the nominations conspicuously communicated to members during the seven days after their receipt.
- h. In all cases of a contested election, voting members attending the General Meeting shall be issued with ballot papers.
- i. The ballot paper shall be in a form approved by the Board and voting members shall indicate their vote for each candidate on the ballot paper by placing a cross in the square against one candidate for each position.
- j. The Club shall not implement preferential voting. Voting shall be on a 'first past the post' basis.
- k. Ballot paper not completed in accordance with this Article shall be considered informal and shall have no effect.
- l. The Board, prior to the issue of the ballot papers, shall appoint a Returning Officer and two scrutineers to conduct the ballot. The Returning Officer and scrutineers shall at the close of the ballot add the number of crosses obtained by each candidate for each position. The Returning Officer will announce the result of the ballot at the Annual General Meeting.
- m. The Returning Officer shall consider the nominations for the office of President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, if there is only one nomination for any office, the Returning Officer shall declare the candidate elected to office at the Annual General Meeting.

- n. Elections for Directors shall be conducted in order of seniority with the following list noting the most senior position first and then reducing seniority order:
- o. Where two or more candidates for the role of President receive the same number of votes so that there is no clear winning candidate for the position and the immediate past President is one of the nominees with equal numbers of votes, then the immediate past President retains the position of President.
- p. Where two or more candidates for the role of President receive the same number of votes so that there is no clear winning candidate and the immediate past President has either not nominated for the position or is not one of the candidates with equal numbers of votes, then the ballot for the position of President is repeated until such time as a clear majority is achieved.
- q. Where two or more candidates for roles other than the President receive the same number of votes so that there is no clear winning candidate then the remaining members of the Board will decide on the successful candidate or candidates by majority vote in a private and intervening meeting at the General Meeting.
- r. In the event of there being no nominations for the position of Secretary, the position shall be declared vacant, and Article 5.12 will apply.
- s. A candidate for any Board position who is unable to attend the Annual General Meeting owing to such circumstances that prohibit attendance may stand for a position if in writing the candidate has notified the Secretary of the circumstances at least seven days prior to the Annual General Meeting and only if agreed by a majority of the members attending the Annual General Meeting.
- t. At the conclusion of voting procedures and after all voting results are declared and settled the Returning Officer shall destroy the ballot papers.

5.14 Defects in Appointment

All acts done by any meeting of the Board or of a Sub-Committee or by any person acting as a member of the Board shall, notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of any such member of the Board or person acting in an official capacity, or that the member of the Board or any of them were disqualified, be as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed and was qualified to be a member of the Board.
